Tolliver Falls — a scenic area on Tolliver Run, a mountain stream in Swallow Falls State Park. A short distance from this spot the stream joins the Youghiogheny River at Swallow Falls. Tolliver Run flows out of Tolliver Glades where a Tolliver family operated a wilderness farm early in the 19th century. The area is now a part of Swallow Falls State Forest, ten miles from Oakland.

STUDENT LIFE

Garrett County's sixth annual Autumn

Glory Festival was held October 11-14. The event brought thousands to the area and all of the activities were well attended.

Many students from both Southern and Northern High Schools were involved in the busy weekend. Their first activity was the Fireman's parade which was held Thursday evening. Over fifty units participated.

The Queen's Pageant took place on Friday, October 12, at Northern High School. Bonnie Yommer, Grantsville, was the queen. Her escort was Darl Kolb, also from Northern. Maid of Honor was Kathy Schmidt of Southern. Brian Frederick served as Kathy's escort.

Other participants in the coronation were: Princesses from Southern — Lou Ann Holland, Sherri Shillingburg, and Mary Wolfe. Their respective escorts were Kevin Moyer, Dave Parsons, and Kevin Liller.

Princesses from Northern — Fayann Lewis, Paula Spear, and Tammy Humberson. Their respective escorts were Ricky Broadwater, George Keller, and Blake Brenneman.

Approximately eighty-five units formed Saturday afternoon to march in the Autumn Glory parade in downtown Oakland.

J. Glenn Beall, Jr., U.S. Senator from Maryland, acted as Grant Marshall. The Southern High senior band had the highest rating of any band in the parade with a percentage of 84.6, but was ineligible to win a cash prize as it was the host band. Nearly 50,000 witnessed the procession.

Sunday, October 14, was the last day of the festival. An antique car show was held at the Foodland parking lot. Motorcycle races were also held on the McHenry fairgrounds.

Other highlights of the weekend included: an Autumn Glory Ball, banjo and fiddlers contests, square dancing, and a youth football double-header.

Turkey dinners were served at all restaurants in the area and at the Southern cafeteria. Chesapeake seafood was available throughout Oakland, as well as barbecued chicken.

Senior Princess Lou Ann Holland and Kevin Moyer, her escort.

Autumn Glory Queen Bonnie Yommer and her court and former queen Mary Lynn Gibson.

as Southern's annual Homecoming was held the weekend of November 2, 1974. Activities for the weekend included a parade organized by the Student Council, a bonfire, and a semi-formal dance.

The Rams battled Liganore High School to a 19-0 victory in the Homecoming game. Queen Mattingly and King Moyer were crowned at half-time.

Members of the court and their escorts included: Pam Trickett and Denny Skeweris; Lou Ann Holland and Jim McHenry; Vicky Powers and Randy DiSimone; Connie Mellinger and Dave Sharps; Paula Skiles and Stan Skiles; Linda Bolding and Kevin Liller.

The New Leaf band provided the music. The band was so well received it was later booked for the prom.

The year 1973-74 was a great year for the Southern Highlander Marching Band.

To start their fall marching season they won second place at the Buckwheat Festival in Kingwood and later won sixth place in the Forest Festival at Elkins.

During the Autumn Glory week, they took first place in the Firemen's Parade and were chosen as the Grand Feature of the festival.

Later, in October, the band returned home from the Hagerstown Mummers Parade bringing with them first place.

To show their Christmas spirit they took second place in the Frostburg Christmas Parade.

Between their marching seasons, the band gave their annual spring concert.

To begin their spring marching season they marched in the Maple Festival in Meyersdale.

For their trip of the year, the band attended the Kentucky Derby Festival and Field Show in which they won eighth place over-all and also received a Derby flag and a plaque of appreciation.

The following weekend the band attended the Preakness Festival in Baltimore, taking fifth place.

The band ended the year by taking second place in the Dapper Dan Parade in Cumberland.

This fall the band hopes to honor their invitation to the Macy's Day parade in New York City.

Acorn and Jr. Journalists

Jr. Journalists

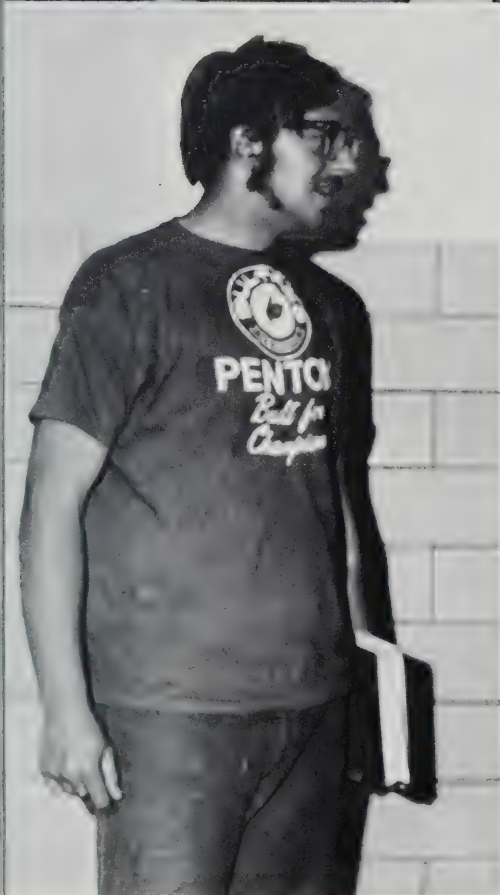

The 1973-74 Acorn Staff continued to expertly inform the school on the news around and about. The staff was headed by senior Jim McHenry. Other staff members included: managing editor Robin Ravenscroft; feature editors Lou Ann Holland and Angie Mattingly; sports editor Dave Sharps; art editors Dianne Rook and Susie Welch; photographers Doug Kight and Mike Murphy; business manager Susan Plank; circulation manager Robin Spiker; Ad editors Mark Marucci, Harry Turney, and Cyndy Geroski; news editor Vicky Skipper; typist Cheryl Smith; exchange editors Cheryl Smith and Joy Brewton; copy editors Don Burton, Kathy Davy, and Lori Larson; public relations Pam Trickett and Don Burton. The adviser was Mrs. Joan Lambert.

The Jr. Journalists helped the Acorn staff with two issues. Their editor for the year was Cathy Paugh, assisted by scribe Becky Bowman. The club was advised by Mrs. Joan Lambert, Dianne Rook, and Robin Spiker.

Canada:

The Student Exchange Club had reached its goal. Twenty of the members, adviser Mrs. Janice Schiff, and her husband Lowell, left Oakland on Friday, April 19th and arrived in Canada the same day. The members of the group stayed in two separate villages near Quebec City where they lived with French speaking families.

The first half of the one week stay each member experienced individual foreign living while during the second half of the week the entire group toured Quebec and Montreal.

On the way home the group stopped in New York where they stayed for one night. The weary travelers returned to Oakland on April 28th.

Assemblies, bake sales, and dances provided the necessary funds for the trip. The club members spent many hours preparing for the activities. One of the highlights of the year for the entire school as well as the club was the India assembly, pictured here.

The club's main objective was to enlighten people on matters of different customs and life styles. In the future the club hopes to continue its program of exchange.

1. Mrs. Janice Schiff performs another service for the club.
2. Sandy Jenson performs during the assembly.
3. Dolls of India explain the culture.
4. Five students: Cindy Graham, Diane Custer, Sydney Loy, Aleta DelSignore, and Rhonda Johnson went to Paris with their teacher Miss Duey Snyder.
5. Pam Arnold illustrates the dress style of India.

the members of the Health Careers Club have done exciting things. They had a mother-daughter tea where the mothers were given mums.

The members went to an all state convention in Baltimore. At the convention, there were people in nine different categories. Some of the topics were physical therapy, pharmacy, lab technician and others. Members were told about the number of years of college it took for these fields and what they would be expected to do.

Members made favors for the nursing home every holiday.

There were two new members from the club that became candy strippers. Now there are nine. They work on weekends and twice during the week. It is a voluntary job.

Mr. Robert Sheetz became the club's new adviser.

This year's '1974 Highlander' is going to be one remembered

as the annual that broke tradition. The magazine approach has been followed in many areas of the book, such as not placing the advertisements in their own separate section at the back of the book.

A closing section was added which included a colophon — the statistics of this year's book. More copy is to help describe clubs, plays, sports, and people — some of it thanks to the Acorn staff.

The adviser had to constantly challenge the editors to not try to follow our older traditional ways but to look at many of today's popular magazines to get an idea of what new ideas were in the wind.

Following our second annual attendance in New York City of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in March, new ideas were brought home by Jann Jones, Debby Frazee, Diana Meyers, Diane Coppola, Dave Corbin and Dennis Durst.

We feel the Highlander is changing for the better and next year's promises even better results.

The Senior Class production of 'you can't take it with you'

was presented April 3-5. A three-act comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, the play captivated the attention of many. Miss Duey Snyder, director, and Robin Rodeheaver, student director, guided the eighteen actors and actresses to make this year's production a real success.

The plot revolved around the lives of the Martin Vanderhof family. Antics such as xylophone playing, ballet dancing, fireworks making, etc., highlighted the comedy.

The plot thickened as complications developed between Harry Turney and Pam Arnold and between Grandpa Carl Fike and the Internal Revenue Service.

Despite this, everything worked out in the end and once again peace (???) returned to the Vanderhof family.

The Senior Class earned over $600.00 on the play. The money was used for the senior gift to the school and the senior class trip.

Don Burton wonders who stole his knickers. ▼

Pam Arnold tells Dave Naylor that there's no business like show business.

'See How They Run' was presented by the Class of '75 on May 8, 9, 10, to the public and to the school students. It was a very popular hit in the line of plays since time immemorial.

During practice and performances things such as glass breaking, falling through steps, leaving a uniform (that was not supposed to be found) on stage in view of everyone's sight and when the line "where's my uniform" came up, some idiot in the audience said, "Look on the chair!" No use trying to ad-lib after that.

Then there was the time John Eberly ran out on stage in his underwear and some comedian, again from the audience, said, "Don't look Ethel!"

Then there was the time that a glass full of milk was dropped and no milk ran out. Quite surprising to everyone.

After many laughs and compliments, the play ended with great memories, thanks to Miss Jane Avery.

Diane Carasco looks disgusted with the make-up job she did on Del Medvity as Steve Fiedler examines false eyelashes.

The Jr. Class makes an important decision and held the 1974 Prom Saturday, May 18, at the Wisp in McHenry. This year's banquet Prom was the first time the prom had been held outside of the school.

There were only a few decorations needed and they were based on the theme Stairway To Heaven. For the center of attraction there was a fourteen foot stairway with white angel hair and stars on it, and silver stars on blue crepe paper as a background. Vases of blue, yellow, pink and white daisies were placed on all of the dinner tables along with ice blue candles

At 7:00 p.m., to start the evening, there was a buffet. The dinner consisted of lasagna, fried chicken, baked ham, potatoes, green beans, salad, pie and cake.

At 8:30 there was an awards program to pay our tribute to the graduating seniors. There were such awards as dunce caps, a glass of milk, a golden tray, a pair of sneakers, a pair of sweat pants, and a pin-up calendar.

At 9:00 the dance guests arrived and the dance was underway. The New Leaf band played popular tunes along with the theme.

At 10:15 Donna Nutter was crowned queen to Brad Thomas and gifts were given to the court, the flower girl and the crown bearer.

The prom ended at 12:00 midnight. This important move made by the Jr. Class made the '74 prom different from any others in the past and a lot of time and hard work made it a great success.

"Not rain, nor snow, nor heat, nor gloom of night, stays the Southern Rams from the swift completion of their appointed starts," seemed to be an appropriate motto for the 1973 football team. During summer practice, the rain kept things cooled down. Then the first game was played on a hot and himid Friday night, but during the last week of practice, the team could have built snowmen for blocking dummies. And what better way can you think of ending a season than with a victory over arch-rival Northern on a snow covered gridiron on a windy Saturday afternoon.

Despite the weather conditions, the Rams won their last three games, to finish the season with five wins against four losses to give Coach William Frost his second winning season in a row.

Denny Skweris was the only player to receive Potomac Valley Conference honors. However, the Tri-Valley Conference selected two and three players received honorable mention. Denny Skweris and Craig Bosley won first team positions and Dave Stuck, Jim McHenry, and Rick Welch received honorable mention.

team, under the coaching of Mr. Louis Newcomb, compiled a record of 1-5-1.

The team's only victory was a smashing 28-0 win over the Bruce Bulldogs. This game was played during the Football-O-Rama.

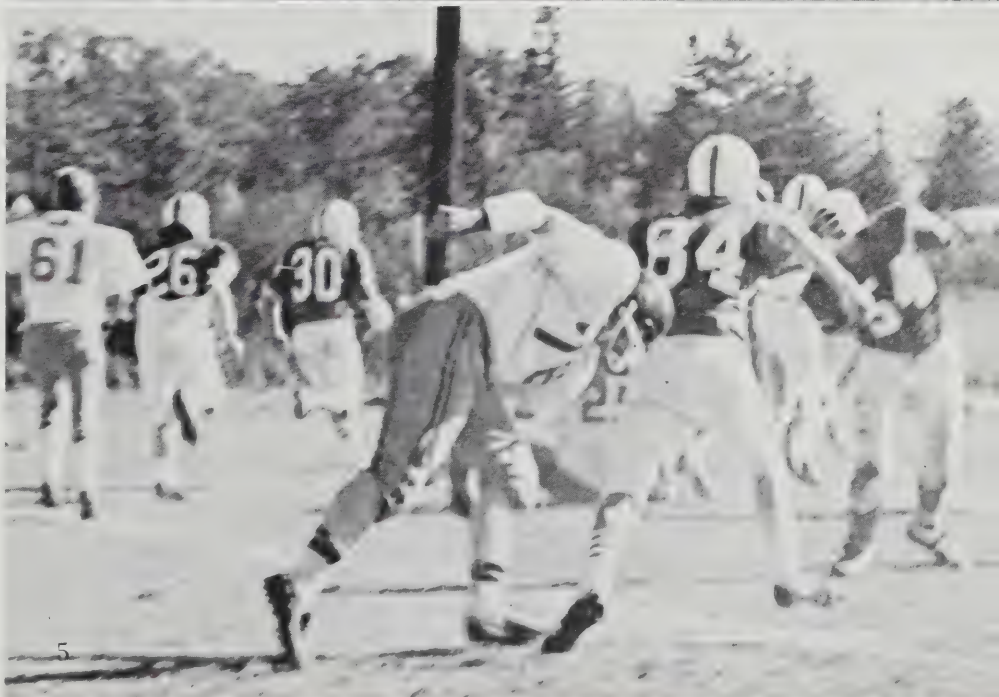

Also during the O-Rama the Junior Rams lost to Bishop Walsh Junior Spartans 6-0. The loss put the Rams in third place for the tournament.

During the regular season, the junior high lost by a disappointing two points to arch-rival Northern in front of the Junior High student body.

They next played Valley of Lonaconing and battled the Black Knights to a 0-0 stalemate. Ridgely came out on top in the next game 13-6.

Romney and Petersburg proved to be the toughest opponents this season. Romney beat the junior high by 12 points and Petersburg dominated the statistics as well as the scoreboard with a 26-0 score.

Coach Newcomb had assistance this year in the person of Mr. William Fryman. This was his first year of coaching at Southern.

The Southern Wrestlers, even with the psych tactics of Rich Ulery and Bob Ingram, could not put together any wins this season.

Even though the team did not win any matches, all of the wrestlers either put out more than enough effort to win a match or could pin their opponent so fast they did not even sweat.

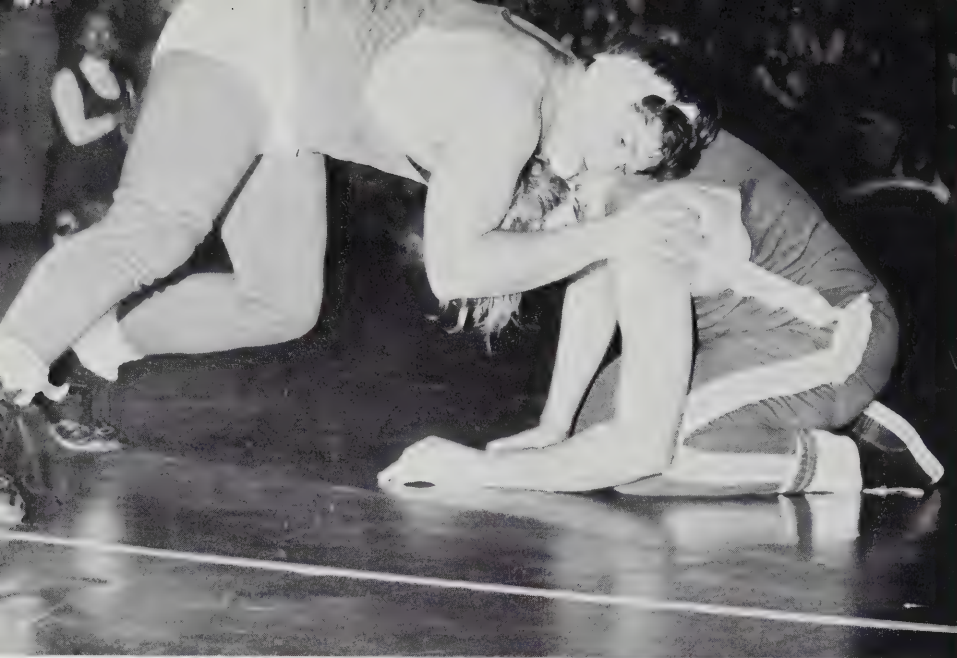

Dave Stuck, for example, a first year wrestler, spent a couple days in the hospital because of heat exhaustion. Jeff Smiley Friend almost had to be carried from the mat after a match. Rich Ulery came onto the mat and as soon as the ref blew his whistle, jumped as high as he could, came down into his psych tactic and promptly pinned his opponent at the District Qualifying Round in eleven seconds. He also pinned many opponents in the first period.

In the PVC Tournament, the Rams Phil Martin, Jim Browning, and Rich Ulery took first place in their weight class. They also sent three wrestlers, Rich Ulery, Jeff Friend, and Phil Martin, to the District Tournaments and two, Jeff and Phil, made it to the Regionals.

named new coach

year of ups and downs

The 1973-74 Varsity Basketball team ended the year with a 10-12 record. The Southern five looked real good on occasions but were not too consistent. Randy DiSimone led the Rams averaging 19 points per game along with 5.25 assists per game. Denny Skeweris led all rebounders with 10.5 rebounds a game. Dave Sharps led the team in steals with 3.1 steals per game. These three plus Kevin Liller and Tom Panther all managed to average ten or more points per game.

Field Goal percentage was led by Tom Panther while Randy DiSimone led in Free Throw percentage. Southern led all area teams in scoring, with the exception of South Hagerstown who was undefeated.

The Rams won their first game in the District I playoffs by beating Williamsport 55-54 to advance to the semi-finals. Southern hopes of going to College Park ended as Frederick beat the Rams 86-59. Frederick went on to place first in the state as a class B school.

Randy DiSimone led the PVC in foul shooting while Denny Skeweris made the PVC second all-star team. Randy also received honorable mention on the state level.

Ending his first year as varsity coach, Mr. Don Stemple felt it was a year of ups and downs where the record was no indication of the caliber of the team.

could have made a big difference in the Jayvee basketball season. Head coach, Mr. Gary Newcomb, did a fine job in his first season of coaching.

After dropping games to Bruce and Valley, the Rams charged back winning five of their next six games. Their momentum faded with the loss of key personnel. This helped send the Jayvees into a nonstop tailspin that carried into the PVC tournament.

With center Allen Lewis absent, the Rams dropped a heartbreaker to Ridgely 30-29.

Fun, challenge, practice, work,

victory, and defeat were all included in the Jr. High basketball season this year.

In getting ready for the season, Mr. Harvey Speicher, head coach, made the boys begin practice the 26th of November. If someone would have walked in the locker room before practice, they would have found shoes flying through the air or the smell of hair spray or deodorant . . .

But long hours of practice were spent practicing layups and getting ready for an exciting season.

The first game of the season was December 12th and they were to play Petersburg. The boys were really pepped up for this game, but after a hard fight, lost 44-42.

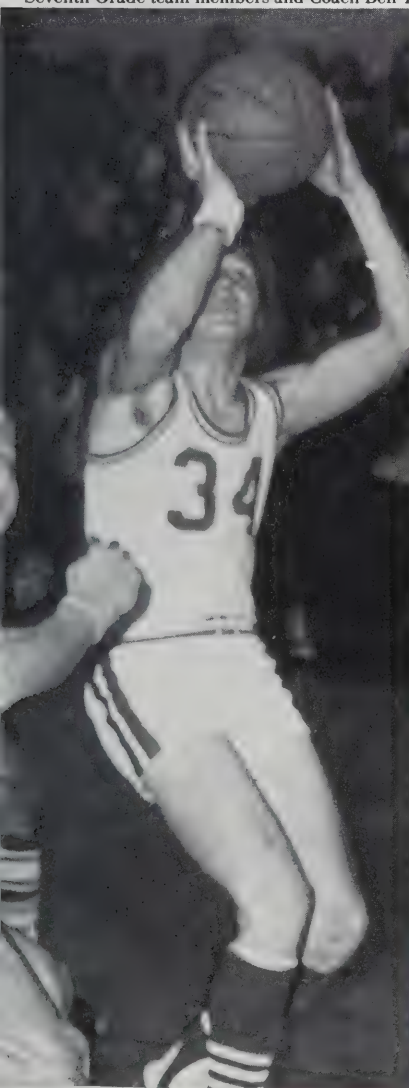

The schedule was followed with the Piedmont game. The team was ready to go and they knew they must make this game a good one.

With the season coming to an end, the players knew they had to destroy Northern. We won 48-32.

Our record was nine and five, nine of those wins being against some pretty good teams. We could have gone undefeated, if as a team, we could have put forth one hundred percent.

In sports extra effort is needed to achieve success. The team did this a number of times. In our permissive world today discipline is still needed in pursuit of goals. This individual discipline could easily apply to sports. In order to be successful you must make sacrifices.

When a team is down several runs, it is very difficult to come back. It can be done if each member thinks positively.

The coach must be the one to spark the team. But he cannot complete his job unless the team has the desire to win.

The Bishop Walsh game was an example of desire and positive thinking. This game had gone nine long innings and was tied three times. We were behind one run going into the bottom of the seventh when we picked up a run to tie it.

In the bottom of the eighth we again found ourselves behind. This time it was by two big tallies. We overcame this deficit by scratching and clawing our way to home plate in a successful attempt to tie the game.

In the bottom of the ninth, with the score knotted, we forced a run across to win one of the exciting games of the season.

Without the desire and positive reaction, success cannot be clasped. This only becomes acquirable through individual discipline.

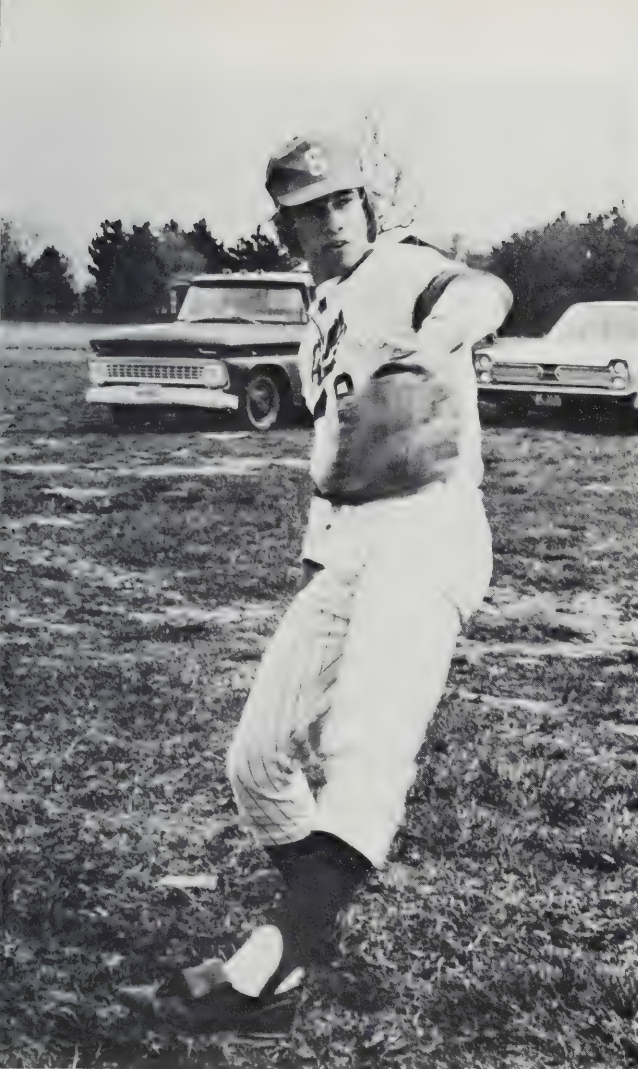

Craig Bosley ready to receive.

Golf team has third undefeated season

Jim McHenry, Dave Sharps, and Brian Frederick, Senior team members.

The golf team continued its three year undefeated streak going through the 1974 season by putting together a 14-0 season. This ups their wins to thirty in a row.

The Rams also kept their PVC title by winning the second annual PVC Tournament over runner-up Petersburg by thirteen strokes. Jim McHenry, who was defending champion from 1973, won his second PVC title with an 88. Dave Sharps was runner-up with an 89.

During the regular season, the Rams' closest match was a 14-4 victory over Beall High School.

The District Golf Tournament, which is usually held in the spring, was held last fall at Hagerstown. The Rams took third place in the District and sent two golfers, Brian Frederick and Dave Sharps, to the state tournaments held at College Park.

Because the Rams were undefeated, the trips to the matches were fun, and the trips home were more fun. Right Coach Jim Miers and Coach Don Stemple?

This year was the second year of existence for the girls'

basketball team. Although the lady dribblers won only three games out of eight, this season proved to be more successful than the first season.

The team had thirteen members. However, two of the girls, Jane Corbin and Peggy Watson, comprised the backbone of the team.

While participating in the games, the girls put forth a concentrated effort to win. During the bout against Rowlesburg, Kim Calhoun was so wrapped up in the game that she scored two points for the opposition. After the games, the team relaxed and discussed their strengths and weaknesses. Even though their victories were few, the girls enjoyed the season.

Three valuable seniors, Barb Paugh, Jane Corbin, and Toni Terrant, left the team this year. However, ten experienced players will return for the 1974-75 season and they hope to be undefeated.

was the same, except for

paint and new hall lights. The teachers looked familiar except for maybe one or two. But there was something very different about the main office.

The desk that had been occupied by Robert F. Rodeheaver for seven years now had a new occupant. Luther D. Parrack, the former vice-principal of Northern High School, had come to head the faculty.

As an instructor he had taught English, world history, social studies, and science on both the Junior and Senior high levels.

Mr. Parrack feels his study of the humanities and his interest in anthropology has helped him to relate to people in spite of possible character differences. He also believes that the use of literature provides a degree of knowledge that is vital when dealing with others.

Mr. Parrack did not make many changes in the school policies this year, but did try to provide the proper enforcement. With the help of Mr. Edward Green and Mr. Carl Everly, discipline was not a major problem.

The yearbook welcomes Mr. Parrack's pictures to its pages.

1. Mr. Edward Green listens to the problems of Lance Uphole.

2. Mrs. Marilyn Metheny writes a pass for a tardy student.

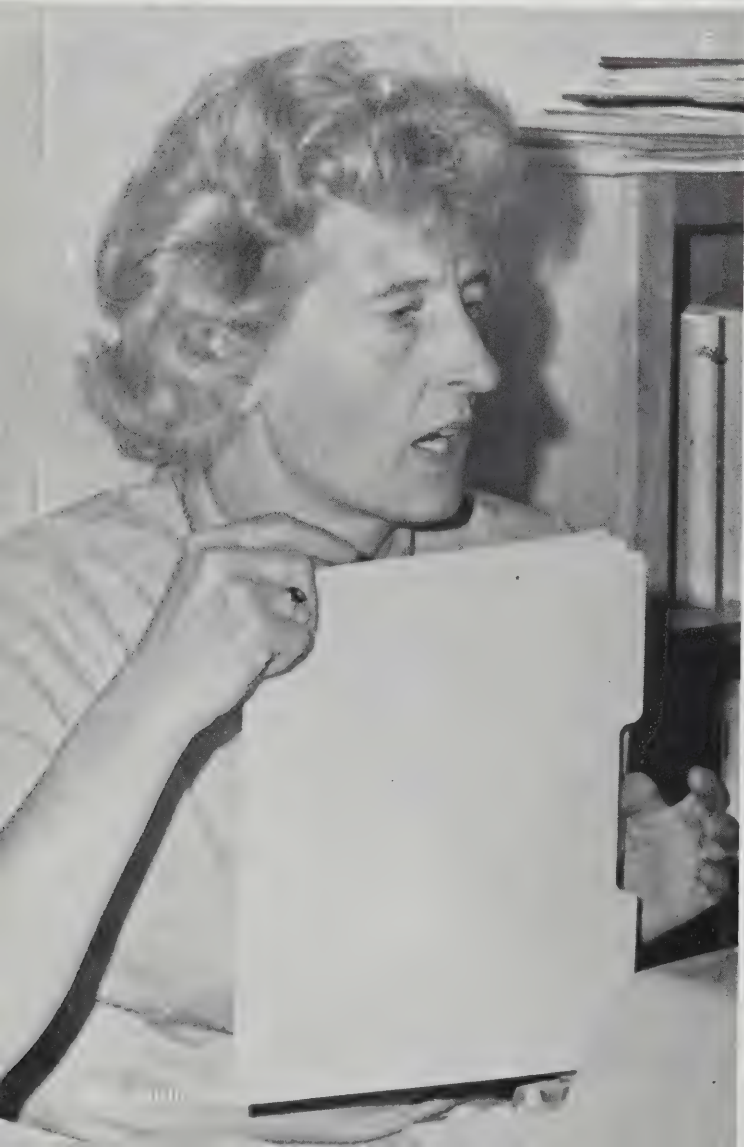

3. Mr. Luther Parrack — always ready for action.

The role of the Guidance Department

Although the role of the guidance department is rather inconspicuous, it is an important one. The five member staff consists of three counselors, one cooperative education coordinator, and one secretary. Each of the five is assigned to a major area of guidance work.

Mr. Benjamin Thorn (2), along with being counselor for students in grades ten through twelve, is the College and Technical Coordinator, the Scholarship Counselor, and the draft registrar.

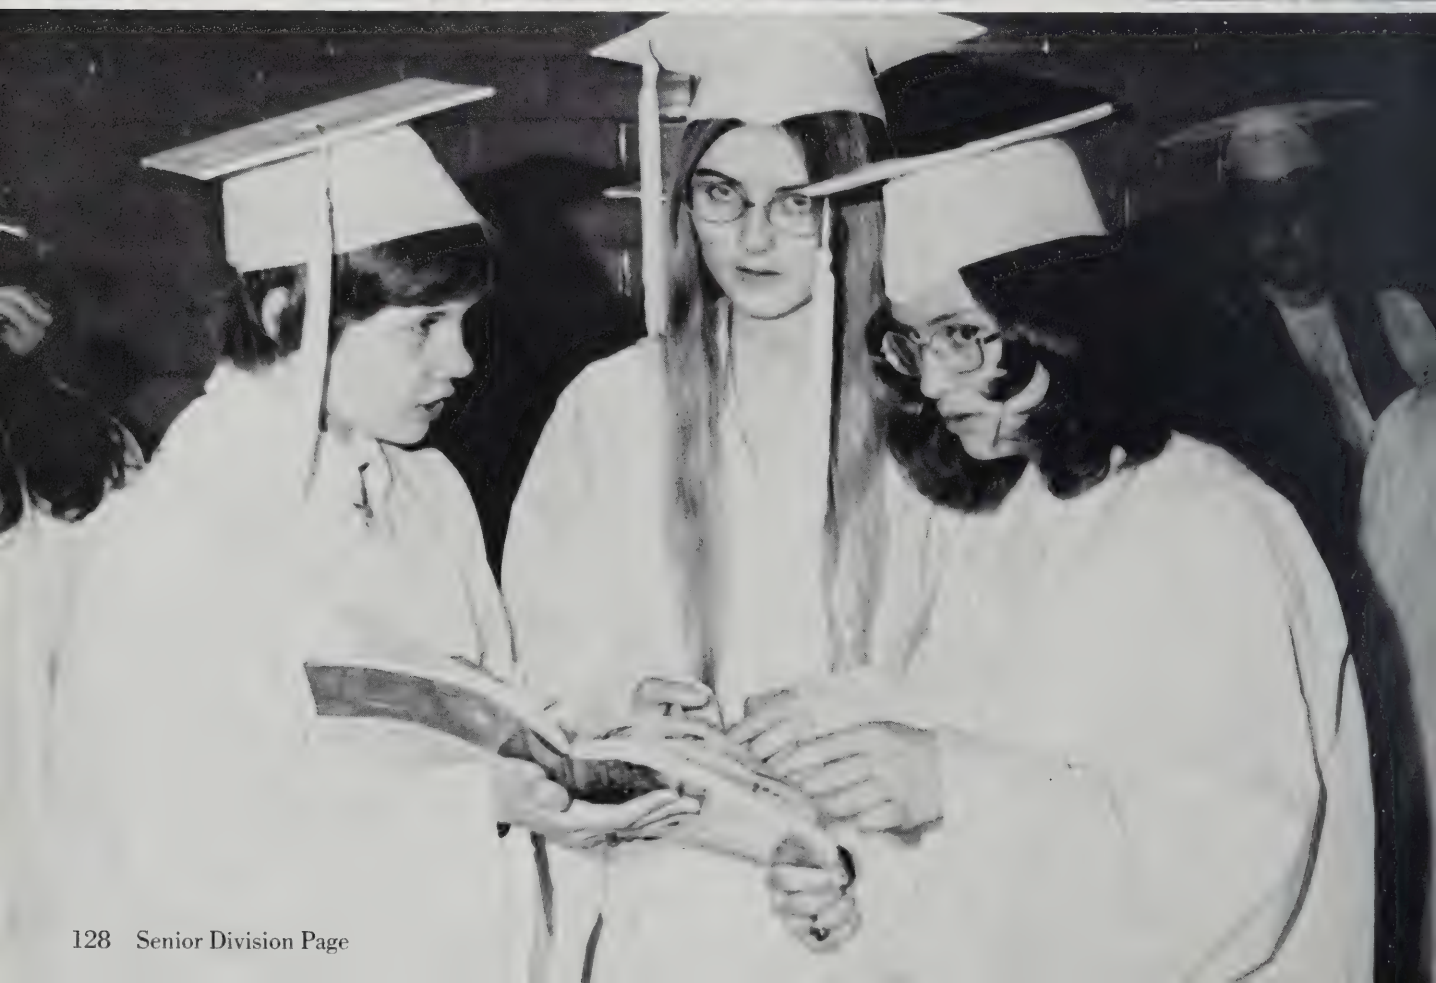

The vocational coordinator is Mrs. Pamela Peddicord (3). Her duties include counseling vocational students, coordinating SAS, ACT, and PSAT tests, and making government reports for vocational programs.

Mrs. Betty Lou Liller (4) is the secretary. She is responsible for setting up appointments, typing, and aiding the counselors. Counseling students in grades seven through nine is Miss Anna Bishop (5). She is also the counselor for Special Ed. students and the coordinator for standardized tests.

The cooperative education coordinator is Mr. Paul Bierer. He supervises all students on the program and issues their grades.

Usually efficient, the guidance staff was tied-up in confusion this year. Converting to the computer scheduling posed problems for the entire school. In the future, after becoming familiar with the system, the staff should benefit greatly from the "mechanical brain."

Mr. Fred Carroll and Mr. Orval Kitzmiller

plan to leave Southern this year after many years of service.

Mr. Kitzmiller started working at Southern on February 9, 1954 as custodian. He worked night shift and drove a school bus during the day until in 1965 when he sold his bus and moved to day shift.

Mr. Kitzmiller's plans for the future are to go fishing with the new rod given to him by the faculty and to hunt and do odd jobs "now and then."

Mr. Carroll has been in the teaching profession for 39 years. During this time he taught a variety of subjects, including Drivers Ed., Phys. Ed., Science, Shop, and coaching. He most recently taught building trades here at Southern and this past year taught wood-working at GCC.

At this time Mr. Carroll is undecided about his future. He plans to fish and hunt during the week instead of on rainy weekends.

On February 9, Mr. Charles Bennett

a mathematics instructor at Southern, passed away at the Tucker County Hospital in Parsons, W. Va.

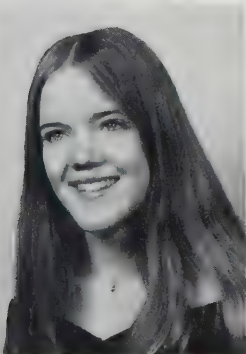

Mr. Bennett had taught at Thomas High School before coming to teach at Southern in 1956. During the years that he taught here, Mr. Bennett was well-respected and a friend of all teachers and students.

Born in Elkins, W. Va., he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bennett.

A major in the U.S. Army reserve, he was a Post 227 member of the American Legion at Thomas. He was a member of the St. Thomas Catholic Church.

Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Mary Colabrese Bennett.

The Charles A. Bennett Memorial Math Award was given to Barry Sweitzer. This was awarded to the senior who produced the highest math score on the American College Testing Program — ACT.

Mrs. Miller retires after 32 years of teaching

Mrs. Theoda Miller, Typing I teacher at Southern, retired at the end of the school term. Mrs. Miller taught thirty-two years in the Garrett County School system, ten years in the Oakland High School and twenty-two years at Southern.

During her teaching career, Mrs. Miller had taught World History, Boys Physical Education, Civics, Core 9, Core 10, Shorthand I, General Business Training, Economics, Business Law, and Typing I.

Mrs. Miller enjoyed her years of teaching in Garrett County and looks forward to her retirement.

Mrs. Theoda Miller is relieved that 7th. period is finally over.

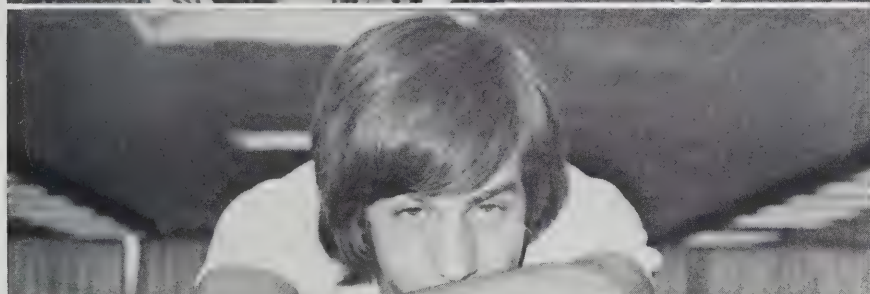

Mr. Fred Carroll seems hesitant as Mrs. Judy France tells Mr. Robert Boal and him about what happened in her sixth period class.

"Really, Mr. William Freyman. I don't think it's all that funny," says Mr. Arch Baker.

the year of '74 brought about many new occurrences at SHS.

For the first time in our county's history, students stayed home from school because of the shortage of gasoline. Garrett was one of the Maryland counties that was hit especially hard because of the mid-winter truckers' strike. Because of its isolation from the rest of the state, Garrett had a problem of its own.

There were some consolations though. By the time supplies and the county's allocation of gas finally rolled in, Garrett County, Maryland was known nationally after a filmed report was telecast on the CBS News.

Basketball games had to be rescheduled throughout the season because, along with the energy crisis, snow created a problem as usual.

But we had to consider that '74 was not as bad as others. By February, we had missed only nine days of school because of weather or no gas. This created a problem too. Our school calendar only stated four extra days in case of emergency school closings so we were handed five extra days.

Thus, students settled back and everyone, excluding seniors, planned to go an extra week in June, slating our closing date at the 18th. Oh Boy!

The rest of the summer, till September that is, was considered our summer vacation.

Tolliver Falls — a scenic area on Tolliver Run, a mountain stream in Swallow Falls State Park. A short distance from this spot the stream joins the Youghiogheny River at Swallow Falls. Tolliver Run flows out of Tolliver Glades where a Tolliver family operated a wilderness farm early in the 19th century. The area is now a part of Swallow Falls State Forest, ten miles from Oakland.
